

SWB, in conjunction with the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons (RACS), presents:
International Forum - Global Surgical Issues
Monday, 2 May 2011, Adelaide Convention Centre

- 8.30am Welcome
Prof Jegan Krishnan / Dr Paul Anderson
Overview: Specialists without Borders (Dr Paul Anderson)
- 8:40 – 9:00am Keynote Address: Aid Wars - The politics of aid in developing countries
Mr Alexander Downer ( Former Australian Foreign Minister)
- 9:00am – 9:20am When help is not helpful...
Mr Matt Wade
- 9:20 – 9:40am The Cuban model of medical education/aid can be successfully exported to developing countries
Dr Katherine Edyvane
- 9:40 – 10:00am Do we need the World Health Organisation to become the global review organisation for medical education / aid?
Dr Kiki Moate
- 10:00 – 10:30am SESSION BREAK
- MINI SYMPOSIUM
- 10:30 – 10:50am Specialists Without Borders: Initiating innovative medical education techniques in developing countries
Dr David Birks
- 10:50 – 11:10am Safety checklists: key strategy or passing fad?
Professor John Windsor
- 11:10 – 11:30am The legacy of medical education/aid, is dependent not only of the quality of teaching but the receptiveness and infrastructure into which it is being taught – the contrast of Rwanda and Papua New Guinea
Dr Ian Nicholson
- 11:30 - 11:50am The Red Cross and surgery: what it still offers
Dr Frank Stening
- 11:50 – 12:05pm DISCUSSION PANEL
- 12:05 – 12:50pm LUNCH
- 12:50 – 1:10pm Operating on patients in developing countries is the most effective contribution surgeons can make?
Professor Suren Krishnan

- 1:10pm – 1:30pm Surgeons as educators means a greater legacy and less complications
Dr Kate Drummond
- 1:30 – 1:50pm Do we need to look in our own backyard first: is there medical/surgical apartheid in Australia?
Professor Jegan Krishnan
- 1:50 – 2:10pm Sustainability of aid programs needs medical philanthropy: a corporate view
Johnson & Johnson
- 2:10 - 2:30pm SESSION BREAK
- 2:30 – 2:50pm Rotary's business plan to attract individual and corporate interest in medical aid/education and what we can then do Ms Roberta Waterman
- 2:50 – 3:10pm RACS: Administering the AusAid budget and access for the surgical community
Ms Daliah Moss
- 3:10 – 3:30pm DISCUSSION PANEL

-----